 - i. Harmonized Sales Tax shown separately
 - ii. Contractor's HST registration number
- c. The Invoice shall state it is an invoice and contain sufficient detail in accordance with the items and unit prices of the awarded Bid. For example: Time and Material Contracts should provide a breakdown of labour and material utilized for the project.

13. Maintenance Security (Non-Statutory Holdback)

A non-statutory holdback applies to all high value acquisitions for construction related projects and must be clearly outlined on all invoices submitted to the City.

A Maintenance Security Holdback will be retained progressively, commencing on the first Payment Certificate, from monies that would otherwise be payable to the Contractor. The maximum value of the Maintenance Security Holdback shall be as follows:

TOTAL AMOUNT OF BID MINIMUM DEPOSIT REQUIRED

$100,000	5%
$100,000.01 to $500,000	3%
$500,000.01 and over	2%

The maximum Maintenance Security Holdback will be held commencing on the issuance of the Completion Payment Certificate. The amount withheld on Payment Certificates prior to the Completion Payment Certificate will be based on the percentage of work completed.

Where additional work is added to the Contract the Contract Administrator shall withhold additional Maintenance Security to cover such additional work, if such additional security is deemed to be in the Corporation’s best interests.

The retained amount is strictly to be used as a Maintenance Security.

Except as otherwise provided hereunder, the Maintenance Security, less any deductions made there from as provided for in the Contract, shall be paid to the Contractor following the issuance by the Contract Administrator of the Final Acceptance Certificate at the end of the warranty period.

14. Material Safety Data Sheet (MSDS)

The Contractor shall supply current Material Safety Data Sheets for all controlled products supplied on or before delivery of initial shipments and again sixty (60) days prior to expiry of the sheet. Failure to comply with this instruction or to label products in accordance with the Workplace Hazardous Materials Information System Act may result in cancellation of the Contract, in which event any existing stocks shall be removed and credited back to the Owner in full by the Contractor. The Owner shall be under no obligation whatsoever, to any Contractor who does not comply with the Owner’s procedure in this regard.

15. Discount Terms

If a discount is allowed for payment within a certain time, the time for taking the discount will not begin until the date of the receipt of the invoice or the date of the delivery of the goods, whichever is later. However, if an invoice is returned for correction, the time for taking the discount will not begin to run until the date of the receipt of the corrected invoice.

16. Extras/ Changes to the Purchase Order

No charges for extras or changes or changes to pricing will be allowed unless it has prior written authorization from the City.

17. Mandatory Health & Safety Directive (COVID-19)

The successful Bidder shall take all possible measures to prevent the spread of COVID-19 through compliance with requirements under the Occupational Health & Safety Act and associated regulations and any other applicable laws, including but not limited to municipal by-laws. The Contractor shall have regard to public health directives (from the Chief Medical Officer of Health and/or the Region’s Medical Office of Health) and apply as appropriate.

18. Termination

The Owner may terminate this Purchase Order without prior written notice if Goods, Services and / or Construction are not provided within the timeframe specified. The Contractor shall give the Owner written notice of the cause and extent of any delay, and the Owner, at its sole discretion may terminate the Purchase Order and may order with another Contractor, without penalty or other fee. Furthermore if the Owner, in its sole opinion, determines that the Contractor has neglected, failed or refused to proceed promptly with delivery of the Goods, Services and/or Construction, the Owner may cancel the Purchase Order without penalty or other fee.

19. Hazardous Goods

Goods must be transported by the Contractor or Contractor's agent in accordance with all relevant federal and provincial legislation covering the handling and transportation of all hazardous and dangerous goods.

20. Inspection and Acceptance

All Goods, Service(s) and/or Construction are subject to inspection and acceptance by the Owner or the Owner's representative. Rejected Goods, Services and/or Construction, upon written notice of rejection by the Owner, shall be returned and either exchanged, refunded or cancelled at the Owner's discretion, at the Contractor's expense and cost.

21. Governing Laws

This Purchase Order shall be governed by the laws of Province of Ontario.

22. Assignment

The Contractor is not permitted to assign the work of this Purchase Order, in whole or in part, to any party, without the prior written approval of the Manager, Procurement Services or designate.

23. Force Majeure

It is understood and agreed that the Contractor shall not be held liable for any losses resulting if the fulfilment of the terms of the Contract shall be delayed or prevented by wars, acts of public enemies, strikes, fires, floods, act of God, or for any other cause not within the control of the Contractor and which by the exercise of reasonable diligence the Contractor is unable to prevent. Should the performance of any Contract be delayed or prevented as herein set forth, the Contractor agrees to give immediate written notice and explanation of the cause and probable duration of any such delay.

24. Supplier Code of Conduct

Contractors agree by accepting this order declare that they have read and understood the Owner's Supplier Code of Conduct in its entirety and that the Contractor and any applicable sub-contractors, are not only in full compliance with this Supplier Code of Conduct but we will maintain compliance with it throughout the full duration of this Contract.

25. Strikes & Accidents

In the event of strikes, accidents or unforeseen contingencies causing stoppage of work, the Owner reserves the right to; delay or cancel the work specified on the Purchase Order.

26. Confidentiality
