10. NEW BUSINESS

Councillor McCaw requested an update on the Sidney Street construction. Director of Engineering & Development Services, Rod Bovay, provided information on paving taking place from Wednesday, May 30 until the end of the week. Councillor McCaw also requested a status update on the erosion of the Bridge Street bridge. Director of Engineering & Development Services, Rod Bovay responded his department is working at different approaches for both the arched bridges for repairs. The Transportation & Operations department is continuing to clean up and has continuous discussions with the contractor and bonding company to address the issues.

Councillor Miller inquired about the former Sun Luck property on North Front Street and its abutting property. Director of Engineering & Development Services, Rod Bovay, responded that the new owner plans to demolish the former Sun Luck property but will renovate the property to the south and has applied for a demolition permit.

Councillor Denyes spoke about one of the applications from the May Planning Advisory Committee meeting (Proposed Amendment to Zoning By-law Number 3014, as Amended – 586 Ashley Street, formerly in the Township of Thurlow, now City of Belleville, County of Hastings – File Number B-77-1046).
